

Aptar Announces Chairman King Harris to Retire in May; George Fotiades Elected as Incoming Chairman of the Board; Two New Directors Appointed

Crystal Lake, Illinois, January 18, 2018 - AptarGroup, Inc. (NYSE: ATR) Chairman of the Board King Harris will be retiring effective May 2, 2018, at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The company's Board of Directors has elected current director George Fotiades to replace Harris as Chairman upon his retirement.

"After 40 years of insightful guidance and dedicated oversight of Aptar and its predecessor businesses, King Harris will retire in May," said Dr. Joanne Smith, Chairwoman of the company's Corporate Governance Committee. Harris had overseen Aptar's predecessor businesses when they were part of Pittway Corporation and had served as a director since 1993 when Aptar was spun-off to become a stand-alone public company, and served as Chairman of the Board since 1995. Smith added, "King Harris is one of the founders credited with fostering the original vision for Aptar, as well as working closely with Aptar's leadership team to successfully grow the company. Thanks to his energetic leadership and tireless effort for decades, Aptar has become the innovative leader in dispensing and drug delivery solutions. He leaves an important legacy at Aptar and, by extension, in our global markets. Further, we are very fortunate that George Fotiades will succeed King as the next Chairman with unanimous and enthusiastic support of the Board. George has excellent leadership experience and a deep understanding of Aptar's strategy, markets and competitive advantages having served as a member of the Board since 2011."

Separately, the Board appointed Craig Owens and Jesse Wu to the Board of Directors effective February 1, 2018. Mr. Owens, 63, is the former Chief Financial Officer and Administrative Officer of Campbell Soup Company. In addition, he was the Chairman of the company's Operating Committee. Mr. Wu, 61, currently advises private equity firms and previously held senior leadership roles at Johnson & Johnson, including Chairman of Johnson & Johnson China and Worldwide Chairman of the company's Consumer Healthcare Division.

"I am delighted to welcome Craig and Jesse to our Board of Directors," said King Harris, Aptar's Chairman of the Board. "Craig brings exceptional experience in global finance and operations and his insight into the food and beverage markets will be of substantial value to Aptar. Jesse's deep understanding of the Asian region, including considerable transaction experience and exposure to the consumer markets we serve, will be of great benefit as we look to further penetrate high growth economies around the globe. Our Board is looking forward to the contributions that Craig and Jesse will make as we continue to deliver value to our customers and shareholders."
